Dear Sir,

We are very thankful to your overwhelmed response, it gave us a lot of happiness and joy to receive such a message from higher management during this time. I am very much thankful to Mr. Lakshmipathi sir, Mr. Narayana Das sir, Mr. Prahalad sir for constantly supporting and advising us in making the right decision throughout the journey and especially in this pandemic situation, we always try to give our best to stand with you in your successful journey, and this time we have got an opportunity to prove our trust and loyalty to support to take this challenge.

We have been in touch with local technical teams and quality control team to support and train our employees about the necessary precautions and safety measures to be taken, as you all know manpower support is important to succeed in both of our jobs, following the rules of our QC and local Govt regulations are very challenging to our staff since it is a new situation for us also because we need to keep social distances in our kitchen while cooking too. I would like to pass all the credit to my supporting staff and workers for their best support and efforts.

We will always give our best and uphold the faith you have showed us in the further journey with your esteem organization.

Our sincere thanks for being with us during this pandemic situation and supporting us as always, we really appreciate the same.

Thanking you,

Regards,

Uma Maheshwari
